First Copy

I wanted to incorporate the name but still show the main idea "skateboards".

Second Copy

Just messing around with lines on the logo when I accidentally put it on the h and realized I could make another skateboard.

Third Copy

I wanted to find another way to show skateboarding after the second copy and figured the d could act as a skateboard wheel.

Final Copy

The outline felt like it didn't show the skateboard enough so I increased the stroke from 1pt - 4pt.
